

One trusted supply partner for hotels, contractors and property groups

Kent Traders is a UK-based trade supplier of electrical, bathroom, fire safety and hotel guest-room essentials. We give hospitality groups and their contractors a single account, a single delivery and a single invoice for product categories that would otherwise need five or six suppliers — at trade pricing, with fast UK-wide delivery.

Working with us: joining your existing projects and supply chain

We are set up to slot into live projects without disruption — whether that is taking over a category from an underperforming supplier mid-refurbishment, or quietly handling replenishment behind an existing FM or procurement arrangement.
